NEW YORK, July 22 .- The principal influence in the stock market to-day

NEW YORK, July 22.—The principal influence in the stock market to-day was the growing feeling that speculative hopes of an increase in the dividends on United States Steel on next. Tuesday are destined to disappointment. Believers in the stock maintain, however, that the earnings for the past quarter to be shown by next. Tuesday's report and the excellent prospects for future business will safeguard the market value of the stock. Reports continue to be received of the expansion of the steel industry.

It is estimated that, though the present blast furnace production of the United States Steel Corporation is short of its capacity, its output runs actually to 107 per cent, of the capacity in 1907, the year of the highest previous rate of production. The stock to-day was not benefited by these considerations sufficiently to prevent its decline. The laconic explanation of fered by J. P. Morgan on his return to Wall Street that "there are more sellers than buyers of the stock at present," failed to reassure sentiment, especially since the amount of selling was not as large as it has been at some higher levels.

Instead of the usual determined sup-

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET,

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET,

CHICAGO, July 22.—Another 3-cent break in the price of wheat for July delivery, following a slump of similar magnitude the previous day, prought the price of that option on the Board of Trade here to-day down to $1.12. Other deliveries also were weak. Part of the loss was later regained, and the market closed fairly steady at net losses of $\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ to 3\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ Corn, cats and provisions closed firm.

The market opened extremely weak with prices $\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ to 2\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ Corn, cats and provisions closed firm.

The market opened extremely weak with prices $\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ to 2\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ cover than the previous close, July being at $11.12\cdot\text{c}$ 11.14\text{d}$, and September at $11.05\text{c}$ (0.5\text{d}$ in Within a few minutes July had dropped to $1.12 and September to $1.08. On the break several leading bulls gave the market, fair support, which caused a fair rally. Demand for the September option was a feature of trading throughout the entire day. The movement of the new crop is still on the increase. Arvivals here to-day were 199 cars and 312 were estimated for to-morrow. There was also some export business done here on the break. Cash prices in the Southwest were from 123c, lower. Buying of the September, delivery by several leading commission houses was the feature of the corn market, as a result of this demand sentiment in the pit was quite buillish the greater part of the day, notwithstanding the continued favorable weather. There was a sharp break early in the day of profit-taking, but prices soon rallied. At the close prices were $\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ to $\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ above the previous close.

Oats were firm all day on buying by influental traders, who also bought wheat and corn. Selling was chiefly by commission houses. The market closed firm with prices unchanged to $\frac{h}{2}\cdot\text{c}$ higher.

Provisions were easy at the start, owing to a lot decline in

On Foreign Exchanges .

LONDON, July 22.—Money was in good supply, but in poor de and on the market to-day. Discounts were firm on the large gold shipments to South A warfes.

firm on the large gold shipments to South America.

On the Stock Exchange dealings were small and uninteresting, being confined principally to investment buying of good yielding securities, which again were dearer. Home rails continued to benefit by satisfactory dividends but in other directions values were easy on lack of support.

American securities opened quiet, later hardened slightly. Then profit-taking caused a setback, and at noon the market was quiet, with prices 1-1 lower to 1-4 higher than yesterday's closing. The market sagged further, but wall Street bid up the Harriman issues, United States Steel and Amaigamated sharply, and this strengthened the others, the market closing firm. Diamond shares ended strong.

PISTOL FOR COLLECTING

Wild West Method Leads to Shooting in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 22.—The collection of a commission from a bank by the use of a revolver led to a shooting affray yesterday between Martin L. Dawson, a real estate dealer, and Simon Seelig, president of the Savings Trust Company. Neither man was injured. Dawson was arrested by a motorcycle policeman, who overtook him after a short chase on the Boulevard.

Dawson claimed that $365 was due him as the result of a deal in Tennessee and Texas lands, which was closed last week. The commission was disputed because the final portions of the deal were negotiated by a third porty, according to Seelig.
